Reading comprehension

Reading comprehension

1. What does the fisherman do every day?
2. What was unusual about the fish he caught?
3. Why did the wife keep sending her husband back to see the fish?
4. What do you think the moral of the story is?

- Big heavy crate you bought
- A fisherman ever seen so rich
- You can do happy with what you've got (even if it's not much)

Reading comprehension: True or false.

1- The fisherman is single. She isn't married.

True / False

Reading comprehension: True or false.

2- The fisherman has two children.

True / False

Reading comprehension: True or false.

3- The fisherman and his wife live in a big house.

True / False

Reading comprehension: True or false.

4- The fisherman saw a boat and a net for fishing.

True / False

Reading comprehension: True or false.

5- The fisherman caught a shark.

True / False

Reading comprehension: True or false.

6- The fisherman's wife is always happy.

True / False

Reading comprehension: True or false.

7- The moral of the story is even the smallest things can make us happy.

True / False

Fill in the blanks:

A ..... fisherman ..... with his ..... in a tiny ..... by the sea.

Fill in the blanks:

One day, the fisherman caught a ..... fish. He ..... it ..... and ..... when he found out. It was a ..... under a .....

Fill in the blanks:

The fisherman's wife was ..... and sent him back to ..... the fish ..... a big .....

Fill in the blanks:

The ..... 's wife made a ..... and become a ..... and ..... a palace.

Fill in the blanks:

When the fisherman returned ..... he found his ..... sitting on huge .....

Fill in the blanks:

The wife wasn't ..... again. She ..... to be an .....

Fill in the blanks:

The palace now is much ..... than ..... Moreover, there were two ..... of the palace.

Fill in the blanks:

The wife called her ..... to come. She wanted to ..... time and the ..... the clouds.

Fill in the blanks:

When the fisherman ..... home, he didn't ..... wife nor the ..... She's no longer ..... to him.

Fill in the blanks:

The fisherman ..... his wife for his wife to ..... with ..... and be happy.

Fill in the blanks:

The fisherman can ..... his wife for him in front of the ..... days.

Fill in the blanks:

Finally, the wife ..... that even the ..... things can bring

Unscramble the sentences.

1. Very day a fisher

A poor fisherman lived with his wife in a small cottage by the sea.

2. Caught a fish

a talking fish / One day, / caught / the fisherman/

3. Fish said fish

and said him back / was angry / for a big house / The fisherman's wife / to ask the fish

4. Wife / wife

an empress. / Then the fisherman/ asked to be / told the fish / that he/ the wife/

5. Wife / wife

The fisherman's wife / to become a queen / a palace / and her / to make a wish /

6. Wife / wife

The wife / and was / about the clouds / was not / happy / to control time / the wonders /

7. Wife / wife

his wife to/ The fisherman / to find their / disliked / no longer /returned home/ to him. /

8. Wife / wife

the fish/ wife/ and he/ happy. / to always/ to/ for his wife / The fisherman / with him / made /

9. Wife / wife

/ The fisherman, / wife/ wife / the fisherman/ / wife/ wife/

the smallest things/ The wife / happiness / can bring / warm/ that/ even

Scrambled Events

Arrange the events of the story in the correct sequence.

1. The wife wished that even the smallest things can bring happiness.
2. The fisherman's wife made a wish to become a queen and live in a palace.
3. A poor fisherman and his wife lived in a small cottage and ate fish.
4. A poor fisherman lived with his wife in a small cottage by the sea.
5. The fisherman returned home to find that his wife is always so with him.
6. One day, the fisherman caught a talking fish. He let the fish go back to the sea and the fish granted him a wish.
7. The fisherman's wife was angry and sent him back to the sea to find the talking fish to grant her a wish.
8. The fisherman returned home to find that his wife is no longer happy with what he has.
9. The fisherman's wife was angry and sent him back to the fish and asked for a big house.

Retelling the story

Retelling the story